Accused Girl's Fiance on Witness Stand-First Presentation of Testimony for Mitchell.

Two Interesting Features.

The interesting features of the day were the taking of the witness stand by Dr. A. S. Rulkauskas of Chicago, the accused girl's flance, and the testifying of John Bassett, the gun expert, to the effect that Sophle was unable to pull the trigger of a revolver similar to the one sold her in Waterbury. The greater part of the day was consumed by the medical experts, Dr. Johnson of Naugatuck, and Drs. Diefendorf and Carmault of New Haven. Their testimony was given as answer to a long hypothetical question proponded by Mr. Cassidy, of counsel for Sophle, and was to the effect that a man wounded as Kulvinskas was, was unable to, owing to the effect the wounds had on his mental powers, to give accurate and coherent answers to questions asked of him at the time the so-called dying statement was made to the coroner in the Waterbury hospital, on the evening of September 18.

Sophie's Fiance a Witness.

Sophie's Fiance a Witness. Sophie's fiance was the last witness for the Kritchman defense, testifying to the fact that he was a practicing physician in Chicago and was engaged to Sophie. When asked by Mr. Kellogg if he was engaged to Miss Kritchman, a spectator in the gallery took exception to the question, calling out, "I object!" but Mr. Kennedy insisted upon an answer and the fact was admitted by the witness. It was also brought out that the fact that his engagement to the accused girl had been brought about through correspondence was not an unusual occurrence among Lithuanians.

STANDARD OIL CORPORATION SEVERELY ARRAIGNED Government's Turn to Be Heard in

Suit for Dissolution. Washington, March 15 .- Holding up he Standard Off company of New Jersey as a danger to the country and its organization as a commercial precedent that must be eradicated from the business world, Frank B. Kellogg today arraigned the corporation before the supreme court of the United States with all the power of his elo-quence. It was the government's turn to be heard in the argument over the dissolution of the "Standard Oil," as decreed by the circuit court of the United States for the eastern district of Missouri.

of Missouri.

Except about twenty minutes consumed each by John G. Milburn and D. T. Watson, both in defense of the sumed each by John G. Milburn and D. T. Watson, both in defense of the Standard Oil, all the time was taken up by Mr. Kellogg.

His object was to give a history of the Standard Oil and its activities, which he denominated as monopollstic, but frequently he was led off into the law of the case.

Time after time the court manifested its keen interest in the case by subjecting the counsel before it to a series of queries. They were particularly anxious to know about the common ownership claimed by the Standard Oil counsel and to get the various interpretations of the meaning which should be given to a monopoly, as used in the Sherman anti-trust act.

The day brought out a sharp conflict of purposes by the government and the Standard Oil. Mr. Kellogg dwelt upon the activities of the corporation with a view of attempting to prove an intent to monopolize in addition to the reorganization of 1899.

On the other hand, the Standard Oil counsel centended that such matters were not before the court for review. The only question, they claimed, was whether the alleged filegal combining of 1899 was a violation of the law as held by the lower court. This they based on the fact that the government did not appeal from the decision of the lower court.

The plan tonight is for Mr. Watson to continue his address when the court meets at noon tomorrow. He is to be followed by Mr. Wickersham for the government, while John G. Johnson is to close at the end of the day for the corporation.

Mr. Perry called yesterday afternoon at the department of agriculture to find out when the decision as to the shipping of cysters could be expected, but Dr. Wiley, who has the matter in charge, was out of town, and no one could say just when the decision would be given out.

Mr. Perry also had a talk with Ivan C. Weid, who is connected with the dairy bureau of the department and has charge of the card system of bor the property of the state. Dr. Wiley, who has the matter in charge, was out of town, and no one could say just when the decision would be given out.

Mr. Perry also had a talk with Ivan C. Weid, who is connected with the dairy bureau of the department and has charge of the card system of determining whether milk is pure or not. This system is now in vogue in all sanitary dairies, and it is intimated that the same system will be insisted upon by the department to test the water where the oysters grow. The department officials are now at work getting up a card which will be suitable in the oyster business, and the oysternen will have to comply, practically, with the same regulations that now pertain to pure milk.

The department has tested the water in all the rivers and waters of Connecticut where oysters are found, but the results will not be given out at present. They have also investigated the sanitary conditions of all places where oysters are shucked, and upon this information the new rules and regulations will be based. It was intimated to Mr. Perry that the department would not be too severe on the Connecticut oystermen, provided they showed a disposition to co-operate with the department in cleaning up the rivers of the state. Dr. Wiley and his board will, however, insist that conditions be made as nearly perfect as can be, and no unwholesomeness or unsanitary oysters will be allowed to pass the government impractions of all places the government impraction that conditions be made as nearly perfect as can be, and no unwholesomeness or unsanitary oysters will be allowed to pass the government impraction that the properties of the state and the conditions are received and the partment that conditions be made as nearly perfect as can be, and no unwholesomeness or unsanitary oysters will be allowed to pass the government in general points. runs 175 acres as a dairy farm, while many others control 100 acres and upwords.
